This Designated Contact Person is responsible to keep their contact information correct, and all information regarding emergency and deployment contacts accurate. If circumstances prevent the Designated Contact Person from fulfilling their duties, the company may assign a new Designated Contact Person by submitting a written request on company letterhead. The request should include reasons that the original Designated Contact Person can no longer represent the company, and contact information for the new Designated Contact Person. The deployment email address and the emergency email address should also be confirmed at this time.
6. The LPSC Do Not Call Program registry database only allows one deployment email address and only one emergency email address. Please do not request multiple distribution addresses for these designations.
7. The 2011 Independent, Principal and Dependent Telephonic Solicitor Registration Applications are available for download on the Do Not Call solicitors section of the LPSC website.
